2011 MEYERS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Application deadline: April 15, 2011

ABOUT THE MEYERS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Individuals serving not-for-profit organizations want and need to develop their knowledge and skills; however, many cannot afford the cost of professional development. The AFP Genesee Valley Chapter is committed to helping its members and volunteers achieve their full potential.

The Meyers Fund honors Daniel M. Meyers and his contributions to the fundraising profession by providing scholarships to attend AFP Genesee Valley Chapter's Great Lakes Regional Conference.

MEYERS SCHOLAR APPLICANT CRITERIA:

- Applicants must submit:
 1. A completed scholarship application including required signatures,
 2. A brochure or annual report which describes the organization,
 3. A completed conference registration form (if one is not available at the time of your application, it will be forwarded to you once your application is received), and
 4. A one-page listing of two to five professional development objectives to be met as a result of attending the conference.
- The applicant has not previously received a scholarship to an AFP Conference.
- Only one individual from the same organization may be selected.
- Each applicant selected will receive a $150 scholarship towards the conference registration fee.
- The applicant must be employed as a fundraising professional for a 501(c)(3) organization.
- If a candidate is an executive director, a substantial amount of his/her time must be devoted to fundraising (please state amount of time in writing).
- Only applicants in the greater Rochester area served by the AFP Genesee Valley Chapter are eligible to apply

ADDITIONAL NON-MEMBER CRITERIA

- The applicant can be an employee or a volunteer representing a 501(c)(3) organization
- The organization must have an annual budget of $350,000 or less

All Meyers Scholars are encouraged to make a donation to the Meyers Fund through AFP Genesee Valley Chapter so that the Fund continues to grow and benefit others.
